THE LITANY OF THE LIGHTING OF THE AVDENT CANDLES (week 3)

Lector: Cry out with joy and gladness, for among you is the great and Holy One for whom you have waited.

People: We wait, we prepare, we cry out with joy and sing praise.

Lector: We have lit the candles of Hope and of Peace. In the glow of their light we feel the warmth of deep and quiet joy and lift our faces toward the Holy Source.

People: God of gladness and joy, let your face shine on us, let your light shine within us.

Lector: We light the candles of Hope to release us from the prison of despair, the light of Peace to calm the chaos of life, and today we light the candle of Joy, the most infallible sign of the presence of God, to remind us that the One for whom we wait is already among us.

People: Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, o Earth; break forth, O mountains into singing, for God is our comfort and compassion.

Lector: We stand here between the past and the future in Hope and Peace with Joy as we await the incarnate Word.

People: My Soul proclaims the greatness of God, and my spirit rejoices. For the Holy One has done great things for us, and we shout for joy.

On Spiritual Communion by Mother Diane Smith

Spiritual Communion has been experienced by the people of God for centuries during times when coming together as community for Mass has not been possible. Together we are in such a difficult time right now. Our most loving acts to one another can occur by staying apart. Christ's loving presence can be known by each of us while we are absent one from another unable to physically receive Communion.

God loves us so much that He reaches out to us in Spiritual Communion. St. Teresa of Avila, mystic and doctor of the church, says, "When you do not receive Communion and you do not attend Mass, you can make a Spiritual Communion, which is a most beneficial practice; by it the love of God will be greatly impressed on you."

This prayer is commonly used by those seeking Spiritual Communion: "My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though you have already come, I embrace you and unite myself entirely to you; never permit me to be separated from you. Amen." (St. Alphonsus de Liguori, 1696-1787)

Communion Song: Come to Us

1. Scattered and broken, bent in our way, we are your people gathered to praise you.
A vineyard uprooted, narrow in sight.
Come, Lord of Glory! Come, Lord of Light!

Refrain

*Come to us, O Lord of Glory
and shine in our hearts.*

*Come to us, O Lord of Glory
and make us anew.*

*Lord, we wait for you. Lord, we wait for you.
Lord, we wait for you. Come, Lord of Glory.*

2. Come, Lord, our dayspring,
come from on high,
as we your people gather to praise you.
Unworthy to taste from your heavenly vine,
but your word will heal us. Come, Light Divine!

Refrain

3. Come, Root of Jesse; come, David's son;
come, Star of Morning; we come to praise you.
Hope of creation, of all humankind,
reign over body, spirit and mind.
